TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE
"GENEROUS RESPONSE"

"The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone".

The owner has leased his vineyard to others who refused to give him his fair share of grapes when they collected them. The owner had made the investment to plant a vineyard and made an agreement to lease it to others who would give him a share of the produce. But when the time came, they refused to give him what he was entitled to. They were greedy and wanted all for themselves and maltreated the owner's assistant even going so far as to kill him. There were consequences, however. The owner had them punished, even putting them to death. The story raises many issues for us. Foremost is the question of honesty. The laborers had made an agreement with the owner for a certain amount of the produce. They refused to give him any. That was a matter of basic honesty. The workers failed in their responsibility. They were guilty of dishonesty. There were consequences for their actions.

Perhaps Jesus was telling His listeners and us that God has been generous in His blessings to us. Because of His generosity, God expects a generous return from us. We might ask ourselves are we being generous in our return to God? How much time do we devote to God on any day? How much time do we spend in prayer? How do we use the many talents that He has given us? Do we use them to improve our world? Do we use them to help a neighbor? How do we use our financial blessings? Are we generous in sharing those blessings with others, especially the less blessed?

If we have not been as generous in those areas as we might be, then we need to make some adjustments in our way of life and give God a bigger share of the blessings He has given us. There are consequences for the way we handle those blessings. If we do not use them to give glory to God, we may end up like the tenants who were thrown out of the vineyard and punished.

May we always use God's blessings for the good of others and for the praise of God's name. In that way we will build up God's Kingdom here and enjoy the blessedness of His Kingdom forever.

"Step Up for Students"

Would you love to enroll your child/ren at Our Saviour Catholic School but feel you can't afford the cost of private school tuition? If you find yourself in that situation, we encourage you to look into the Step Up For Students scholarship program. The application process for new families has been re-opened until November 30, 2011. Don't miss out on a great opportunity! Step Up For Students awards scholarships to children who come from lower-income families or whose families income may have lowered.

These "tax credit scholarships" are funded by corporate donations, not tax dollars. If you are a parent who would love to have your child attend OSS but know the cost is beyond your budget, we urge you to look into the requirements for this scholarship. We would also ask that you share this information with family and friends whose children may benefit from this program. Just go to the website www.stepupforstudents.org and see if your family qualifies. Please call the school office, 783-2330, for more information.

FROM THE DEACON'S DEN
"I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me." (John 17:20-1)

Last week, in my homily I emphasized how important it is for the members of the Church to be in Unity. Jesus prays for this because it is an essential aspect of being a witnessing of the Gospel message and drawing people to the Body of Christ. During Advent each of us will have an opportunity to witness our unity in the Mass. P. John Paul II announced a revised version of the Missale Romanum during the Jubilee Year 2000. (It) contains prayers for the observances of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Votive Masses and Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions, and some updated and revised rubrics (instructions) for the celebration of the Mass. The English translation of the Roman Missal will also include updated translations of existing prayers, including some of the well-known responses and acclamations of the people. (USCCB) Each of us can choose to embrace the changes with a positive attitude, or we can grouse and complain. What will you choose to do? Also, in last week's Gospel Jesus basically gives his version of "talk is cheap". Will you "talk the walk" or "walk the talk"? When I had my conversion experience and was looking to join a church I visited various churches. I experienced a real sense of reverence and awe only in the Catholic Church! This led me to become Catholic. The entire Church in the United States has been blessed with this opportunity to deepen its understanding of the Sacred Liturgy, and to appreciate its meaning and importance in our lives. (USCCB)

Revelation Bible Study will begin October 12th at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center, Rm. B. We will be using the following book by Hahn, Mitch & Walters: Ignatius Catholic Study Bible: The First, Second, and Third Letters of St. John, and the Revelation to John. If you have questions, call Deacon Pat at 626-4833.

CATHOLIC COFFEE AND CONVERSATION Adult Education

Catholic Coffee and Conversation will NOT be held on October 2nd and October 9th. Next scheduled class is Sunday, October 16th in the teacher's lounge at the school beginning at 9:00 a.m.

DO YOU KNOW WHY YOU ARE CATHOLIC? Here is your opportunity to share your story with visitors to our church that are considering becoming Catholic. Email your story to me at bamurphy101@yahoo.com.

If you don't know how to express your faith maybe this will help. In their Everyday Catholic article Why Community? Why Church? Why Catholic? Jim and Susan Vogt give us six possible reasons. This week's reason is: Service and social justice No human institution perfectly cares for the poor, the disenfranchised, the marginalized. We still have far to go to become a truly inclusive and caring Church, one that fully embraces the demands of Catholic social teaching. Still, the Catholic Church has perhaps the most extensive social service network in the world tending to and living among the poor, coordinating aid in times of crisis, and challenging all members to live more simply and help their neighbors because that is what Jesus taught.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

Did you realize that 1 out of 6 people in the United States is on food stamps? This is a sad testimonial to the state of our economy. People ask why are we providing so much food (2,000 lbs./wk) if food stamps are available. The sad explanations are the amount of red tape to become eligible; the recipients are cut off for the slightest infractions and some do not even realize they are eligible. There are many State and Federal programs available but not known to many of our clients. SVDP fills in for these short-comings in our system by information and material help. We can always use more caseworkers. If you are interested, call 799-3677. Food needed for Food Pantry: canned soup, small canned hams, cereal, peanut butter and jelly.

ANGEL OF THE WEEK

Embracing Change in the Liturgy

For many people, change does not come easy. Change requires us to stop doing things a certain way in order to do something else. Many people find comfort in familiar routines and known ways of acting. Change interrupts those familiar routines. But change is also an opportunity to stop and reflect on what we are doing and to come to a better understanding of God, who does not change.

Why does the Church change the Liturgy?

In its Liturgy, the Church always attempts to follow the “norm of the holy Fathers.” This effort “requires not only the preservation of what our immediate forebears have handed on to us, but also an understanding and a more profound pondering of the Church’s entire past. . . . this broader view allows us to see how the Holy Spirit endows the People of God with a marvelous fidelity in preserving the unalterable deposit of faith, even though there is a very great variety of prayers and rites” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 9).

The Liturgy must, therefore, always celebrate and make present the Paschal Sacrifice of Christ—his saving Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. However, over time, it may become necessary to make certain changes, such as adding prayers for recently canonized saints and adding texts that reflect the needs that the People of God wish to bring to God in prayer. The third edition of the Roman Missal makes such additions and provides a fresh translation of the Latin texts of the existing content of the Missal.

Who decides that the Liturgy should change?

Pope John Paul II approved the promulgation of the third edition of the Missale Romanum, the Latin text, on April 20, 2000. The final Latin edition of the revised text was published in March 2002. The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments was responsible for preparing the text. The congregation is the Vatican office that the pope has charged with overseeing all matters related to the Liturgy and the sacraments. Any changes in the words of the sacramental formulas—the essential words in the celebration of each of the sacraments (either in Latin or in vernacular translations)—must be approved by the Holy Father personally. In addition, church law also gives to conferences of bishops (such as the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) as well as individual bishops certain responsibilities with regard to the Liturgy.

What exactly is changing?

The structure of the Mass (the order of the elements, the actions of the priest celebrant, and so forth) remains unchanged in the new edition of the Roman Missal. However, the translation of the prayer texts will change to more closely reflect the original Latin texts. In some cases, new options for prayers may be available, and some old options may no longer be present.

Will the changes be noticeable?

In the third edition of the Roman Missal, almost every prayer in the Mass—those spoken by the priest and those spoken by the people—has been retranslated from the Latin to English. Some prayers now recited by memory will need to be relearned, and the familiar language of many prayers recited by the priest will change.

In preparing the new translation, the translators were asked to make the English texts conform more closely to the Latin originals and to retain traditional theological vocabulary that communicates important concepts of the faith. The language that the faithful will hear and pray is more formal and somewhat more complex than the language of ordinary conversation. It conveys rich theological concepts and retains biblical language and images.

How can I prepare for the change?

There are many ways in which you can prepare for the changes in the Mass:

- ✦ Make a conscious effort to participate more fully in the Mass each Sunday and holy day.
- ✦ Take advantage of any special catechetical sessions offered by your parish or diocese.
- ✦ Visit the Roman Missal Web site (www.usccb.org/romanmissal) to study the new texts and to learn more about the changes.
- ✦ Read the new texts of the people’s parts at Mass. Begin to study them so that you will be able to pray them well when the new Roman Missal is implemented.
- ✦ Pray for a renewal of love for the Liturgy in your parish and in the Church.

What difference will these changes make in my parish?

Some of the differences will be obvious immediately. We will have to learn new musical settings for the various parts of the Mass. We will learn new words for common prayers, such as the Creed. Those of us who began saying the Mass prayers by heart long ago will need to rely on printed texts again, at least for a while. In the early months of the transition, we may find it more challenging to pray with one voice as people adjust to the new texts and gradually commit them to their hearts. But these surface differences will give way to deeper and more significant changes. If we use the time of preparation well, we will make the changes with a deeper understanding of the Liturgy and a renewed reverence for and appreciation of the Mass. We will hear the prayers with new ears and with new hearts. Our Liturgy will be filled with new life and new spirit as we celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ made present for us.

Where can I turn for help in understanding these changes?

The first stop for catechesis and formation regarding these changes is your parish and diocese. All the faithful are encouraged to take advantage of parish efforts. You can attend catechetical sessions, read articles in the parish bulletin or newsletter or the diocesan newspaper, listen closely to homilies that help explain the changes, and come early to Mass to practice new musical settings for the prayers. In addition, many dioceses, schools, universities, and retreat centers will offer programs to help people understand and appreciate the new translation. You can take advantage of these programs where possible. The official Web site for the third edition of the Roman Missal is found at www.usccb.org/romanmissal. A variety of resources will be posted that may help you. Catholic publishers and national organizations will publish many resources, in print and online, to help you negotiate this time of change. Check out your parish book rack or your local Catholic bookstore to see what is available.

What if I don't like the new translation?

For most people, the unfamiliar is always uncomfortable, at least at first. The more familiar the old is, the more challenging it may be to accept and embrace the new. It is completely normal to feel uncomfortable as you begin studying and reading the new texts. Taking steps to become more familiar with the texts can help a great deal. At the same time, be open to the possibility that you will find things to appreciate in the rich language of the new texts.

The more you read them and study them and pray them, the more familiar and comfortable they will become and the more you will appreciate the theological depth they convey. Taking the time to learn more about your faith, including the Mass and Scripture, can help you appreciate the new texts more fully. Using the catechetical opportunities made available by your parish and diocese can help you overcome concerns about the changes. Finally, you can take your concerns to God in prayer. Pray for a deeper understanding of the meaning of these texts and for an open heart to grow in communion with the Church.

What can I do to make the process of change a good one for my parish?

Everyone has a role to play in preparing to use the new translations:

- ✘ Study the new texts with an open heart and an open mind so that you will be ready to use them in the Liturgy.
- ✘ Take advantage of opportunities to learn more about the new texts by attending catechetical programs and reading articles about the new texts.
- ✘ Offer to assist your pastor or parish director of religious education in preparing parish catechetical events.
- ✘ If you are a parent, teach your children the new prayers and help them to understand the changes. Encourage them to participate in the Mass fully and to learn more about their faith.
- ✘ Be very intentional about celebrating the Liturgy each Sunday and holy day. Arrive on time (or a bit early). Pray and sing with attentiveness. Stay focused on the action of the Liturgy rather than letting your mind wander. Hold the Sacrament of the Eucharist in great reverence. Finally, give thanks to God in your heart for so great a gift. Times of change are always a challenge. But from this challenge can come a deeper appreciation of who we are as the Body of Christ, gathering to celebrate the Paschal Mystery of the Lord.

All are welcome to join us in front of Our Saviour's Catholic Church on A1A to participate in Life Chain. Life Chain is a peaceful and prayerful public witness of pro-life Americans standing for one hour praying for our nation and for an end to abortion. Signs will be provided.

You are also invited to join us for a Rosary for Life at 1:20 p.m. in the Grotto and Chaplet of Mercy at 3:00 in the Grotto following Life Chain.

LECTORS NEEDED

Have you ever considered PROCLAIMING THE WORD OF GOD as a LECTOR at Weekend Liturgies?

Jesus Christ is truly present:
In the liturgical assembly gathered in his name, in the person of the priest, in his Word, and in the Eucharist. (GIRM Chapter II, par 27)

As a Lector, you are actually proclaiming the Word of God to his people. It is a wonderful and spiritually uplifting Ministry. If you feel comfortable speaking in front of a group of people, you have the basic attribute to become a Lector. We will train you, instruct you in techniques, and provide the spiritual direction that you need. Please call Frank Durso @ 459-0998.
