TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

"R.S.V.P."

"The king invited the guests to his wedding, but they refused to come."

Have you ever received an RSVP invitation to a wedding or some other happy celebration? If you did, you probably felt honored to be included and you gladly responded "yes".

But if you could not attend you probably felt badly responding "Sorry, I cannot attend."

In today's Gospel, the king invites his guests to the wedding and many refuse to attend. They make excuses, "I have to plow a field"; "I have a new business to take care of." The king was not happy and punished the reluctant guests. Then he invited others to attend, non-family, stragglers and strangers. Then the party began.

The invitation in the story is from God. He invites you to His Kingdom. We are free to accept the invitation or refuse it. But there are consequences for our decision—Happiness or Punishment. God's invitation is to an eternity of Happiness. Hopefully our response is the proper one, to give us that Happiness. Our response to God's invitation is one we make every day. The various situations we find ourselves in call for us to make some choices. Our choices are either a "yes" to God or a "no". Even when we do not advert to things we are doing, we are making choices. It is important that we be alert to what we are doing so that our choices are right before God. It is easier to make those right choices if we are doing our best to live a dedicated Christian life. That way we will have the right attitude about what is good and bad.

We want to say "yes" to God. Our life will be a "yes" to God if we do our best to live our faith fully all the time. Our faith is not something for special occasions. It is the constant compass for our life. It directs how to live the Gospel Jesus taught and the values He has given us. May we always strive to let our faith guide us in our daily life. Then our "yes" to God will come naturally despite the attraction or lure of so many things that are not in accordance with the Gospel.

We can be sure Christ is inviting us to be part of His Kingdom today. He invites us every day. May our response be "YES".

The Lord of hosts will provide a feast for all peoples

"Step Up for Students"

Would you love to enroll your child/ren at Our Saviour Catholic School but feel you can't afford the cost of private school tuition? If you find yourself in that situation, we encourage you to look into the Step Up For Students scholarship program. The application process for new families has been re-opened until November 30, 2011. Don't miss out on a great opportunity! Step Up For Students awards scholarships to children who come from lower-income families or whose families income may have lowered.

These "tax credit scholarships" are funded by corporate donations, not tax dollars. If you are a parent who would love to have your child attend OSS but know the cost is beyond your budget, we urge you to look into the requirements for this scholarship. We would also ask that you share this information with family and friends whose children may benefit from this program. Just go to the website www.stepupforstudents.org and see if your family qualifies. Please call the school office, 783-2330, for more information.

IT'S FAIR TIME!

It is time for Fair construction and I am looking for a person or people to provide childcare to all of the families interested in Fair construction. The dates will be Saturday October 8, Saturday October 15, and Saturday October 22 from 8:00 - 4:00 pm. I can make this a 100 point position for all three weekends or I can split it up by doing 5 points an hour. I can be flexible with this and generally childcare is not needed after 2:00 pm. Please contact me if you are interested as soon as possible. Thanks in advance for all of your support.

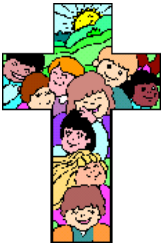

Any questions please contact Pat Nerolich at 795-0680 patn1@aol.com

In observance of Veteran's Day, Our Saviour's Parish will recognize those veterans who have made the sacrifice to preserve the liberties upon which our great country was founded in the November 5th & 6th weekly bulletin. FROM THE DEACON'S DEN

This week I'll continue presenting information on the "Roman Missal." There are a lot of changes for the parts prayed by the priest but not as many for the "people" (laity). The Mass belongs to the whole Church and some of the prayers and words used in the Liturgy were passed down to us from the earliest Church. The Vatican felt some translations were not as faithful to the texts as they should be. "In the liturgy, above all that of the sacraments, there is an immutable part, a part that is divinely instituted and of which the Church is the guardian, and parts that can be changed, which the Church has the power and on occasion also the duty to adapt to the cultures of recently evangelized peoples." (CC 1205) Thus, instructions were issued to guide this current translation in "Liturgiam authenticam" in 2001. The first change you will experience is in the greeting. When the priest says "The Lord be with you" we will respond with the words, "And with your spirit" which is a more accurate interpretation of "Et cum spiritu tuo." This places the English translation in line with the way this has always been translated in most other languages, including Spanish, French, German, and Italian. (USCCB) I have heard people say they don't get much out of Mass (Gee, we only receive the Body and Blood of Christ!!!). So I suggest you come early and pray asking the Spirit to help you put out of your mind the cares of your daily life and to fully participate in the worship of our God.

Catholic Coffee and Conversation will NOT be held today, October 9th. Next scheduled class is Sunday, October 16th in the teacher's lounge at the school beginning at 9:00 a.m.

DO YOU KNOW WHY YOU ARE CATHOLIC? Here is your opportunity to share your story with visitors to our church that are considering becoming Catholic. Email your story to me at bamurphy101@yahoo.com

If you don't know how to express your faith maybe this will help. In their Everyday Catholic article Why Community? Why Church? Why Catholic? Jim and Susan Vogt give us six possible reasons. This week's reason is: Community
Faith is not just about feel-good friendships. In fact, tested faith often pushes us to stand apart from the crowd and take an unpopular stance for the gospel. Still, living a Christian life isn't about being a "lone ranger." Being in community with other believers, we can pool our resources and support each other. Sometimes the different personalities, political views and needs of community may feel like a curse. Working out these differences respectfully and lovingly is part of the work of salvation..

ARE YOU CONSIDERING THE CATHOLIC FAITH? Welcome! THEN JOIN US FOR OUR INQUIRY SESSIONS – We will answer your questions about the Catholic faith. Call Johanna Wigman at 321-506-3333 or Jessie Fletcher at 321-961-6174 to schedule Inquiry Sessions to get the answers you are looking for. Johanna and Jessie provide instructive sessions that answer all your questions and concerns.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

Last week we celebrated the anniversary of St. Vincent de Paul, our Founding Father. His accomplishments after only 80 years on earth is phenomenal. Born in 1580 to poor parents, he became a priest in 1600 and preached to slaves, convicts in the galleys of ships and peasants. In the process, he founded organizations like the Sisters of Charity, a religious congregation for priests, etc. We are proud our organization is named after this great saint who has done so much for the poor and destitute. Food needed for Food Pantry: canned soup, small canned hams, cereal, peanut butter and jelly.

ROSARY CENACLE OF PRAYER, Monday, October 17th, 6:00-7:00 p.m. in church. Following the Cenacle, all are welcome to join us for a viewing of "God of Wonders" in the Parish Center, Rm. B. Families are encouraged to bring your children to see this wondrous movie. Refreshments will be served.

BEREAVEMENT COMMITTEE NEWS

ANGELS OF THE WEEK

We made an exception to our rule of not making angels out of staff. But, this week's angels are Marilyn Belawski, Karol Michelfelder and Antoinette Schultz, who did such a wonderful job of organizing our super Ministry Fair. Thank you!

Liturgical Participation

The celebration of Mass is an act of the whole assembly gathered for worship. In the Mass, the Church is joined to the action of Christ.

We are joined to this divine action through Baptism, which incorporates us into the risen Christ. This action, which lies at "the center of the whole of Christian life" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], no. 16), is initiated not by us but by God acting in and through the Church as the Body of the risen Christ. The Liturgy is designed to bring about in all those who make up the worshipping assembly a "participation of the faithful, namely in body and in mind, a participation fervent with faith, hope, and charity" (GIRM, no. 18). To the extent that we are able to participate in this way, the work of redemption becomes personally effective for each of us. By such participation we make the actions and prayers of the Liturgy our own; we enter more fully into our personal communion with Christ's redeeming act and perfect worship.

"In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people of God's own possession and a royal priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him, and so that they may learn to offer their very selves. They should, moreover, take care to show this by their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them in the same celebration. . . . Moreover, they are to form one body, whether in hearing the word of God, or in taking part in the prayers and in the singing, or above all by the common offering of the Sacrifice and by a participating together at the Lord's table" (GIRM, nos. 95, 96).

The participation of each person in the Liturgy is important. Each person needs to do his or her part.

ORDAINED MINISTRIES IN THE LITURGY

Bishops and priests are called to act in the Liturgy in the very person of Christ, on behalf of his people, pronouncing the most sacred prayers of our faith, presiding over the celebration of the sacred mysteries, explaining God's Word and feeding God's People on the Body and Blood of Christ. A bishop has the added responsibility of being the chief shepherd, the principal liturgist of his diocese in his role as the successor of the Apostles. By God's grace others are ordained to the ministry of deacon. In the celebration of the Mass deacons proclaim the Gospel, occasionally preach the homily, and assist the bishop and priest in exercising their sacred duties.

OTHER LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

In addition to the ordained ministries, some roles in the Liturgy are exercised by lay people who place their time and talent at the service of the liturgical assembly as acolytes (altar servers), lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, cantors, choir members, instrumentalists, leaders of song, and ushers. Others contribute their time and talent to planning and organizing the Liturgy; to keeping the church and the vestments, vessels, and appointments clean and well ordered; or to providing decorations that reflect the spirit of the liturgical feast or season.

This variety of offices and roles is desirable and should be maintained. It is desirable that individuals function in roles of service at Mass. For example, if a deacon is present, the priest celebrant or a concelebrant should not read the Gospel. The lector should not take on the role of a server or an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion. A wide variety of services needs to be performed, and it is preferable that different individuals exercise those services so that the talents and gifts God has placed within the Christian community are fully used and that these roles of service are not monopolized by a few.

Those engaged in liturgical roles need to be well prepared for those roles and to know how to carry them out with reverence, dignity, and understanding. Receiving the proper preparation requires a further gift of time on the part of the person being prepared as well as on the part of those in the parish responsible for the training of liturgical ministers. Finally, the practical task of assigning individuals to particular Masses and organizing the distribution of roles is another indispensable element in the fabric of well-ordered liturgical ministry in a parish.

All the baptized need to understand that part of their duty regarding the Liturgy is to accept some responsibility for the Liturgy, to place themselves and their God-given talents at the service of the liturgical community whenever possible. Whether one brings up the gifts at the Presentation; reads the Word of God; assists with the distribution of Communion and brings the Eucharist to those unable to be present at Mass; serves at the altar; provides music that augments the joy, solemnity, and festivity of the celebration; or serves the assembled community as an usher, he or she is contributing to the worship of the community and fulfilling the responsibility that comes with Baptism. Not all members of the parish community will have the time, energy, strength, or ability to serve in these roles. However, individuals must be careful not to excuse themselves too easily. What is important is that all understand that the celebration of Liturgy is not just the responsibility of the pastor, although he is delegated by the bishop to oversee the liturgical life of the parish. Pastors need the help of people who are serious about living out their baptismal right and responsibility to worship.

THE ROLE OF THE BAPTIZED

This catalog of specialized roles might give the impression that those who are not exercising one of these roles are free to sit back passively and simply let the Liturgy happen around them. Nothing could be further from the truth. Those who come together for Liturgy do not have the luxury of acting as spectators, waiting for all to be done for them. “Full, conscious, and active participation” in the Liturgy (as commended by the Second Vatican Council) is not only their right but also their duty and their responsibility. That responsibility includes full engagement throughout the liturgical celebration. The baptized faithful who form the congregation are called to join in praise and thanksgiving in song and spoken word, to listen attentively to God’s Word, and to exercise their baptismal priesthood in prayer for the Church, the world, and all in need during the General Intercessions.

In the Liturgy of the Eucharist the baptized faithful join their prayer to that of the priest celebrant, offering Christ the Victim, “not only by means of the hands of the priest but also together with him,” and offer themselves as well (GIRM, no. 95). Their participation culminates in the reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord, the sacrament that unites them more fully with Christ their Head and with one another. We need to be aware, therefore, that “participation” does not refer primarily to external activity or function during the celebration of Mass; rather, it refers to a deeply spiritual, interior participation of mind and heart, filled with devotion and penetrating the very depths of the mysteries we celebrate.

In their sincere efforts to participate, those present minister to the priest celebrant, to others who serve in liturgical roles, and to one another. Their attention and active engagement in the celebration can draw from the priest celebrant and the other ministers the best they have to offer. Their enthusiastic song and verbal responses made with conviction can encourage others to sing and respond; their very presence at the celebration of Mass when so many other enticing options might have been chosen instead supports and reinforces others who have made the same choice.

The Liturgy, then, is about the action of God’s own people, each with different offices and roles. When we play our roles in the Liturgy with our bodies, minds, and hearts fully engaged, we make to God a perfect sacrifice of praise.
